

06/12

Urban Studies Dissertation Workshop
Wednesday, June 12, 2013
Princeton University
210 Dickinson Hall, 2-4 pm

Please join us for this informal workshop

Benjamin Sacks, Princeton University

"Designing the West Indies:

Journeys of Surveyors and their Plans in an Age of Anglo-French Rivalry, 1763-1793"

Firuzan Melike Sümertaş, Boğaziçi University

"Mobility, Investment, Patronage:

Agency of Greek Orthodox Bankers on Urban Transformation of Late 19th Century Istanbul"

Adedoyin Teriba, Princeton University

"Architecture & Afro-Brazilian Ideals in Lagos, Nigeria (c. 1894 - 1914)"

James Ryan, University of Pennsylvania

"'Unveiling' the Tramway:

Consumerism and the Intimate Public Sphere in Late Ottoman and Republican Istanbul"

Richard Anderson, Princeton University

"'We Had Tied That Noose around Our Necks':

Urban Renewal, Grassroots Planning, and the Battle to Build the University of Illinois-Chicago, 1947-1965"

Firuzan Melike Sümertaş, Boğaziçi University

"Disproportional Intelligence":

Resistance via Humor, at #OccupyGezi, in Contemporary Istanbul"