

11/08

Research Methods Workshop

1:00-4:30 pm

Carl Field Center, 58 Prospect Ave
Multipurpose Room 104

1:00-2:00 The City's Built Environment

Visual Evidence: Hannah Bennett, Architecture Library

Geographic Data and Maps: Wangyal Shawa, Map and Geospatial Information Center, Lewis Library

Urban Infrastructure and Environment: Colby Fisher and Ted Segal, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

2:00-3:00 Urban Institutions and their Records

Historical City Newspapers, Databases & Primary Sources: Elizabeth Bennett, Firestone Library

Political and Economic Data: Bobray Bordelon, Firestone Library

Mining the Local Archive: Alison Isenberg, Department of History

3:00 Inhabiting the City

Normative Approaches to Urban Planning and Architecture: the Contribution of Political Theory: Jan-Werner Mueller, Department of Politics

Ethnography: Rachael Ferguson, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Sociology

The City and the Imagination: Simon Gikandi, Department of English

Quantitative Data and Statistics: Tod Hamilton, Department of Sociology

OPEN TO ALL PRINCETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS & FACULTY

RSVP Required – vfitzpat@princeton.edu