

Research Methods Workshop

9:00-Noon

Carl Fields Center, 58 Prospect Ave
Multipurpose Room 104

9:00-10:00    The City's Built Environment

Visual Evidence: Hannah Bennett, Architecture Library

Internal City Structure: Stephen Redding, Woodrow Wilson School

Urban Infrastructure and Environment: Ted Segal and Colby Fisher, Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

Normative Approaches to Urban Planning and Architecture: the Contribution of Political Theory: Jan-Werner Mueller, Department of Politics

10:00-11:00    Urban Institutions and their Records

Princeton University Archives and Public Policy Papers: Dan Linke, Mudd Manuscript Library

Historical City Newspapers, Databases & Primary Sources: Elizabeth Bennett, Firestone Library

Political and Economic Data: Bobray Bordelon, Firestone Library

Demographic Resources: Elana Broch, Stokes Library

11:00-Noon    Inhabiting the City

Culture: Eric Avila, Department of History, UCLA through Princeton-Mellon Initiative in Architecture, Urbanism, and the Humanities

Ethnography: Rachael Ferguson, Department of Sociology

Quantitative Data and Statistics: Jonathan Tannen, Woodrow Wilson School and Office of Population Research

Towards a Theoretically Informed Ethnography: Patricia Fernández-Kelly, Department of Sociology

OPEN TO ALL PRINCETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS & FACULTY

RSVP Required – vfitzpat@princeton.edu

<http://urbanstudies.princeton.edu/>