

CENTER FOR MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Colloquium Series

Fall 2016

September 15

“Dual Citizenship as a Strategy of Resource Accumulation: Evidence from Serbia, Mexico and Israel”

Yossi Harpaz

Princeton University and Tel-Aviv University

12:00 PM - 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

September 22

“The Impacts of Residential Segregation of Brazilian Immigrants in Japan”

Chikako Mori

Hitotsubashi University of Tokyo

12:00 PM - 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

September 29

“Legacies of geopolitical threat: A Macro-historical Approach to Anti-immigration Sentiment in Europe”

Andreas Wimmer

Columbia University

12:00 PM - 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

October 6

“STEM migration and Global Talent in an Era of Mass Migration: The Cases of Denmark and Sweden”

Shahamak Rezaei, Roskilde University and

Johan Sandberg, Lund University

12:00 PM – 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

October 20

“Children of Immigrants in a Time of National Uncertainty.”

Daniel Connolly

Journalist and Author of The Book of Isaias: A Child of Hispanic Immigrants seeks his Own America (St. Martin's Press, 2016)

Co-sponsored by the Program in Latino Studies

12:00 PM - 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

---

November 10

“Exploring Borderlands: Urban Citizenship and Local Border Practices (with)in Europe”

Henrik Lebuhn

Humboldt University and Graduate Center, City University of New York

12:00 PM – 165 Wallace Hall – Lunch will be served.

November 17

Symposium:

“New Directions in Transnational Studies: Chinese Migration and Entrepreneurship in Latin America.”

Presenters:

Adrian Hearn, University of Melbourne

Alejandro Portes, Princeton University and University of Miami

Discussant:

Yu Xie, Princeton University

---