

11/10

Research Methods Workshop

9:00-Noon

Carl Fields Center, 58 Prospect Ave Multipurpose Room 104

Neighborhood & Archive

Historical City Newspapers, Databases & Primary Sources: Steven Knowlton, Firestone Library
Creating Narratives from the Archive: Dan Ewert, Department of History; Purcell Carson, Woodrow Wilson School

Princeton University Archives and Public Policy Papers: Sara Logue, Mudd Manuscript
Library

Ethnography: Patricia Fernandez-Kelly, Department of Sociology

Policy and Planning: Aaron Shkuda, Princeton Mellon Initiative in Architecture, Urbanism & the Humanities

Working with Data

Political and Economic Data: Bobray Bordelon, Firestone Library

Demographic Resources: Ashley Faulkner, Stokes Library

Computational Social Science and Quantitative Methods: Elizabeth Roberto, Department of Sociology

The Built Environment

Library Resources on Structure and Design: Gabriella J. Karl-Johnson, School of Architecture
Library

Working with Architectural Images: Ateya Khorakiwala, Princeton Mellon Initiative Architecture
& the Humanities Fellow

OPEN TO ALL PRINCETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS & FACULTY

RSVP Required ~ valsmith@princeton.edu

Breakfast food items will be available

<http://urbanstudies.princeton.edu/>

This workshop held each year on Friday after fall break and open to all University students and faculty